

Roy Allela (right), a fourth year University of Nairobi student pursuing Bachelor of Science in Microprocessor Technology and Instrumentation explains details of a new computer application 'design thinking school and Internet of Things' to a team from Computer for Development.

Bamburi Cement Limited Managing Director Bruno Pescheux (centre) is joined by Peter Gibendi, the company's Mombasa Plant Manager (left) and Rebecca Nyamoita to cut a cake to celebrate the firm's achievement of one million clinker production in the year 2015 at an event in Mombasa.

Ms Ester Mutuli Peter (seated, right) is attended to by Lydia Mwikali, a Kenyatta University Bio Chemistry student and volunteer at Sengani Dispensary in Tala. Lydia is a recipient of the Co-operative Bank Foundation University Scholarship which is extended to high performing but needy students joining universities.

Housing and Urban Development PS Aidah Munano (left), and Mr Anil Shah, Basco Paints Chairman during the launch of Duracoat Silicone Exterior Range of Paints. The paints are water-proof, weather and ageing resistant.

Mr Samuel Njuguna Wainaina of Old Mutual Life Assurance, one of the top agents of the AKI Agents of the Year Awards receiving his award from Mr Moses Kimani, Chief Executive Officer of Pioneer Assurance.

Coseke Company CEO Mr Jeff Thuo (right) presents a certificate to Ms Lynne Nyongesa at the end of a one-week workshop on Automation of Efficiency held at Travellers Beach hotel & club, Mombasa. Participants were from different government ministries and the private sector.

Unilever Marketing Director Antony Eysalai (right) and the Customer Development Director David Walton present a school fees voucher to Amy Wanza of Kenya High School (second left), Elijah Mutiso of Eastleigh High School and Joyce Wangari of Vanessa Grant Girls who won school fees worth Sh100,000 each in the Unilever Chuo Club back-to-school programme.

Nairobi Bottlers Experiential Manager, Ampher Apidi (3rd right) with USIU Vice Chancellor, Prof Paul Zeleza Tiyambe (centre in hat) present the overall winning trophy to South Korea Team for the best represented community performance during 2016 USIU Culture week sponsored by the company.

Safaricom team getting ready for the tree planting exercise at Eburu Forest during the International Day of Forests. The Kenya Defence Forces, Safaricom staff and Community around Mau Eburu forest planted 5,000 trees covering five acres of the forest to conserve the Mau ecosystem. The M-pesa Foundation gave a grant of Sh155 million to Rhino Ark to put up a 50 kilometre electric fence around the forest.

Chinese Ambassador to Kenya Liu Xian Fa and Cabinet Secretary for Health, Dr Cleopa Mailu exchange contract documents for the upgrading of Thika Level 5 Hospital during the handing over of the completed project. The ceremony was held at Afya House.